INTERNATIONAL STUDY AND FRIENDSHIP CAMP 2020

Dear Colleagues!

The Austrian Youth Red Cross (AYRC) is hosting its International Study and Friendship Camp in the summer of 2020. The International Study and Friendship Camp is an annual event that brings together young people who are involved in the Red Cross and Red Crescent Movement at local and national levels from around the world. These young volunteers come together to work on certain topics, exchange ideas and opinions, share life-experiences, and discuss cultural perspectives.

This year's Camp will be held from 13 July to 27 July 2020 in Langenlois – a beautiful small city in Lower Austria! Also, the participants will get several chances to explore the beautiful sights and culture offered by this lovely country in the heart of Europe.

We would like to invite a group of two (2) motivated and enthusiastic youth members who are involved in and/or who volunteer for your organization to attend this exciting event. The young people that you choose to represent your National Society should be aged between 16 and 23. Important: Participants must have reached the age of 16 before they start the camp in Austria! (according to the camp programme and the Austrian Youth Protection Law).

The theme of this year's Camp is:

It's your storyline!

USE YOUR INFLUENCE TO INSPIRE OTHERS ON & OFFLINE

Have you ever sat down to think about how you became a volunteer? How you attended your first Red Cross/Red Crescent event and found friends there? People who share the same mindset as you? If you can recall a person encouraging you, staying by your side, while you were still new to all these things, you are lucky.

In 1859 a Swiss merchant travelled past a battlefield next to Solferino where soldiers were left to die. His instinct was to help them in any way so he turned to the nuns of the neighbouring village. It didn't seem significant or newsworthy back then but through his charisma, empathy and hard work, the worldwide biggest humanitarian organization was born.

Now, you don't need to be the next Henry Dunant or wield superhuman powers in order to help others. In fact, you already have the skills and tools to make a difference. The internet and social media give us a huge advantage in organizing, raising awareness or just making connections, reaching thousands of people even on the opposite side of the globe. However, we also need to take a look a bit deeper than that. Does the picture we paint of ourselves online match our offline personality? Do we interact with others the way we should? Our actions define not just who we are but how people look at us. Just by treating them with respect, it can go a long way. You can be the reason for someone to smile or laugh today or to pass kindness forward.

These lines may raise several questions in you and we hope you'll have the chance to get an answer to them during our workshops and activities in the once-in-a-lifetime summer camp organized by the Austrian Youth Red Cross.

This year's two-week programme will focus on the possibilities provided by the internet in the humanitarian area, the role of the individual acting against discrimination and bullying both online and offline, cultural exchange, network- and friendship building with fun exercises and activity groups. The workshops and information groups will give a better insight and a helping hand to understand the importance of these topics and later on their application in your own national society.

So, if this sounds like the perfect summer, do not hesitate and fill in the application form! We are looking forward to meeting you!

The topics of discussion at the camp will be based to the seven fundamental principles of the International Red Cross and Red Crescent Movement - topics that are important and meaningful to all young people. The discussions will take place in Information-Groups (moderated by competent group facilitators) and in creative workshops. The camp's diverse program will be supported by a variety of written materials and multi-media tools. The camp's official language is English. It is therefore vital that the participants can communicate effectively in the camp language.

FACT BOX:

Up to two (2) young and motivated volunteers active in your National Society, 16-23 years of age, are invited. The application-form should be sent to the Austrian Youth Red Cross, before 24 May 2020.
